The Trustees and Officers of Public Libraries may rely upon the most careful attention to their Commissions.

FROM sundry mistakes made by our Foreign and Colonial Correspondents in addressing their letters, we beg to notify that the members of our firm are HENRY G. STEVENS and ROBERT W. HAYNES, the son and stepson of the late Valentine Stevens, who was for a long period of years the head of the successive firms of STEVENS & SONS, STEVENS & NORTON, and, lastly, STEVENS, SONS, & HAYNES. Since our father's death we have continued to carry on the business of LAW PUBLISHERS, BOOKSELLERS, and EXPORTERS.

During his recent visits to the United States and Canada, ROBERT W. HAYNES secured many Friends and Correspondents there: we are thus enabled to give references of the highest character in most of the principal American cities.

We have no connexion whatever with any other house of business, and to prevent delay and miscarriage, our Correspondents abroad are respectfully requested to plainly address their letters to us as follows:—

INTRODUCTORY OBSERVATIONS.

Four years have elapsed since the issue of the last edition of this work—four years of momentous importance, as well to us who dwell in that portion of Her Majesty's possessions which, when the last edition issued, was known as Upper Canada, (but which is now called by the name of Ontario,) as to all who make their homes in British North America.

We have during that period passed through a revolution and into an altered form of government, calculated to secure to us in the future far greater advantages than those secured by many revolutions, where the liberties of the people have been confirmed only after undergoing a baptism in blood.

Ours has been a more noble revolution, and has been secured not by the decimation of our youth, and the tears of mothers, widows, and orphans, but by the sacrifice of self and of interests which the long, bitter struggle to maintain had rendered difficult for our leaders to yield.

It may be easily predicted that when the future historian comes to comment on the lives of the great political men of our time, he will find nothing in the character of those he is describing, more admirable or more worthy to be held up for imitation, than the sacrifices of personal feeling and political prestige, which alone made our grand Confederation possible.

The British America Act (30 & 31 Vic. ch. 3, Imperial), under which the several Legislatures of Canada and of its Provinces, the Provinces themselves, and the interests of their inhabitants, are governed, professes to have been resolved upon, because the "Union would conduce to the welfare of the Provinces, and promote the interests of the British Empire." That the effect of the contemplated changes was not over-estimated by its authors; but that an improved condition, in a material point of view, and a position of greater political importance in the eyes of the mother country, have been secured to us, must be the earnest hope of every true Canadian.

The theme of our future as a country is so large and so inviting, that a writer is tempted to forget the especial reference which the scheme of Confederation demands in a notice of this kind. The changes in matters in which the legal profession are specially interested, introduced by its means and since its consummation, can alone be properly referred to here.

Sections 96 to 100, inclusive, of the British America Act, make provision for the manner of appointment and payment of the judicature. The effect of them is, that the Governor General holds the power of appointing the Superior and County Court Judges; but until the laws of the Provinces, other than Quebec, are assimilated, he is bound to choose the Judges from the Bar of the Province in which they are to sit in judgment. The Quebec Judges are to be appointed from the Bar of that Province. The Superior Court Judges are to hold office during good behavior (as are also the County Court Judges of Ontario under 33 Vic. cap. 12, Ontario). The salaries of the Superior and County Court Judges are to be "fixed and provided by the Parliament of Canada." These provisions seem to have met with general approval—the power of the Dominion to fix the salaries of the Superior Court Judges having alone given rise to any difficulty. The Ontario Assembly under a sense of the overwork and underpay of our Superior Court Judges, passed an Act giving them an increase of $1000 per annum each. This statute was disallowed by the Governor in Council, under the power of veto given him in the British American Act (secs. 56 & 90), but has been re-enacted in another form. Whether the increase which is well deserved, will be permitted to continue to the Judges, as Judges in Error and Appeal, remains to be seen.

By the Confederation Act exclusive powers as to legal matters are assigned to the Dominion and Local Legislatures. Thus, by sec. 91, sub-sec. 27 of that Act, the Dominion has exclusive power to deal with Criminal Law and with the procedure in Criminal cases; but the Constitution of the Courts to administer these laws and in which the procedure determined on by the Dominion must be followed, is within the province of the Local Legislatures, to alter or amend as they please.

Acting under these powers and in the spirit of the Act, which every where evinces the desire of its framers for an uniformity of the laws of the several Provinces, the Dominion Parliament has performed an arduous task in assimilating and codifying the Criminal Law and procedure throughout the whole of our country. The Law of Insolvency has also been rendered much more uniform by the Act of 1869.

There are many other important Dominion Acts to which we can, from want of space, only briefly advert. The Judges' Allowance Acts of 1868 and 1869, the Fee Fund Act, 1869, the Summary Trial Act, 1869, and the Act of the Attorney-General of Ontario, passed by the Dominion Legislature in 1869, for the speedy trial of prisoners charged with felony, and to which we shall refer again, are amongst the most important.

By sec. 92, sub-sec. 14 of the Confederation Act, the Local Governments have exclusive power over the constitution, maintenance, and organization of all Provincial Courts, Civil and Criminal. They have sole charge over the administration of justice, and over the procedure of their Civil Courts, but, as we have seen, not over that of their Criminal Tribunals.

The Legislature of Ontario has not been slow in acting under the powers conferred upon it. In fact, it has been accused of altering the law too hastily; and its doing so has been pointed to as a reason for doubting the wisdom of dispensing with a second chamber. These speculations are hardly within the scope of our observations, but it may be urged in reply that a number of matters needed change which were lost sight of amid the larger interests at stake in the old Parliaments, or which, for other reasons, could not be passed there, and, in that case, the first few years of the new regime would necessarily witness a far larger proportion of changes than many succeeding years.

However this may be, the changes effected in matters affecting the legal profession in Ontario since Confederation, have been numerous and important, and, without troubling the reader with a complete list of them, it is deemed advisable to call attention to the most important.

These are, An Act as to Attorneys (31 Vic. cap. 23), An Act amending the C. L. P. Act (31 Vic. cap. 24), An Act to amend the Law as to Executions against Goods and Chattels (31 Vic. cap. 25), The Law Reform Act (32 Vic. cap. 3, amended by 33 Vic. caps. 7 & 8), The Dower Act (32 Vic. cap. 7) The Wills Act (32 Vic. cap. 8), An Act respecting Attorneys (32 Vic. cap. 19), whereby the keeping of Terms was abolished, The Division Court Act (32 Vic. cap. 23), An Act respecting Law Fees (33 Vic. Cap. 9), The Judges' Chambers Act (33 Vic. cap. 11), The County Court Judges Tenure of Office Act (33 Vic. cap. 12), and The Evidence Act (33 Vic. cap. 13).

The Law Reform Act has introduced some striking changes. It reduced the sittings of the County Courts out of the County of York to two in the year, and in York to three. Much expense was expected to be saved by this expedient, and, no doubt, has been. The inconvenience of waiting too long for trial is got over by a more easy transfer of cases for trial at the Nisi Prius sittings of the Superior Courts, no order being required; provision is also made for taking Superior Court cases down to the County Court without an order when "the amount is liquidated or ascertained by the signature of the defendant." This section (17) has, however, been construed strictly, and the defendant's signature is in every case required (see McPherson v. McPherson reported in the Daily Globe, of June 9th and 10th, 1870. See also Harrison C. L. P. Act, 2nd Edition 599, notes.)

The sittings of the General Sessions are also reduced to three in the case of York, and two in other Counties. To this Court is transferred the business formerly done by the Recorder's Courts which are abolished.

The inconvenience arising from the length of time between the sessions, is remedied by the power given to the County Court Judge under the Speedy Trial Act before referred to. This Act has the further recommendation that, through it, an innocent man may be enabled to obtain his liberty sooner, and the County saved the expense of keeping him in custody. The expense of a jury is also saved, as the Judge, under the Act, can, with the consent of the prisoner, decide without one.

The Equity side of the County Court shared the same fate as the Recorder's Court, and has passed away, the power of adjudication of cases, formerly in its jurisdiction, being remitted to the Court of Chancery, upon a reduced scale of costs. This can be looked upon only as a benefit to all concerned, the County Court Clerks, as a rule, not having that acquaintance with Chancery practice and pleading, which would enable them to take upon themselves the duties of Master or Registrar, and, in many cases, the Judges not having sufficient training in Chancery lore to render the decision of an equitable claim otherwise than irksome and distasteful to them.

The 18th section of the Law Reform Act dispenses with the intervention of a jury in Civil Cases unless the parties serve a notice with their last pleading demanding one, or unless they obtain a Judge's order to the same effect. Thus, what was once deemed one of the bulwarks of a free Constitution, is lowered from its high position. The fact speaks the character of our Judiciary more fully than words can do; and, although the jury is not always dispensed with, yet this section is sufficiently made use of to demonstrate its satisfactory working, and the wisdom of passing it.

The Evidence Act is a very important one, and gives parties the right to offer themselves as witnesses on their own behalf, in all except certain excepted cases. This has long been the law in England and the United States, and has worked well in those countries. The anticipatory fears which its introduction here gave rise to as to the perjury it would entail, have not been realized, and its working has proved as satisfactory as was expected. It is, in fact, a sound expansion of that common sense tendency of modern law to admit evidence freely, and trust to a careful discrimination to ascertain its credibility.

The Act respecting Dower, somewhat assimilates the practice in that kind of action to the general forms of Common Law actions, and, besides amending the mode in which dower is to be assigned, makes a difference in the lands to which dower attaches.

The Division Court Act makes many changes, and, among them, it extends the garnishee process, and makes provision for judgments by default, without going into Court. Notice that the defendant intends to defend the action is required.

We may also notice the Judges' Chambers Act, by which much business previously done by the Common Law Judges, is performed by the Clerk of the Crown and Pleas of the Court of Queen's Bench.

The 101st sec. of the Confederation Act gives authority to the Parliament of Canada to establish a Court of Appeal for the Dominion; and a bill—the work, we believe, of one of our most learned jurists, and now a member of the Equity Bench—to secure that end, has been laid before the House, and will, it is believed, be passed next session.

The hope of elevation to the Bench of this Court, will, in the future, offer greater inducements than hitherto for our Bar to continue in the pursuit of that accurate and profound study of the law, and in that honourable and upright course which has hitherto marked its career.

That hope, too, will open to the student still greater prospects, still brighter visions in the vista of the future, and will nerve him to yet renewed exertions. The student of to-day has other reasons for congratulation over his brethren of some years ago. While keeping terms and attendance at lectures, neither of which were, for many reasons, productive of advantage to even the most conscientious student, are no longer pre-requisites to admission to practice, or Call to the Bar, there have been substituted for them yearly examinations which necessarily require greater studiousness and prevent the Student from postponing until the last moment all preparation for the examinations for Admission and Call. The awarding of yearly Scholarships by the Law Society to students of one, two, three, and four years standing, for proficiency in certain prescribed works, has also been a very fruitful means of increasing the standard of learning among students. To this the learned Treasurer of the Law Society has very frequently of late, justly ascribed the increased proficiency exhibited by students at their final examinations, and the result has justified, in the most satisfactory manner, the wisdom of establishing the system of Scholarships.

This improvement in the proficiency of the student can be further increased if, in his turn, the attorney will do his duty.

How many attorneys are there who think it incumbent upon them to instruct, or even to direct the reading of, their clerks? The rule is, that the clerk is worked hard if he takes to work, or let alone if he is idle, though the principal is usually eager enough to claim the credit if the clerk distinguishes himself in the examinations, or obtains a Call with Honors.

A system more in accordance with the letter and spirit of the articles ought to take the place of this state of things. A spirit of mutual reliance and mutual assistance ought to actuate each, and the principal should be found as anxious to give proper help and instruction, as the clerk to obey his lawful commands.

We refer students and clerks to the very full particulars and rules as to examinations, to be found at page 74 et seq. of this volume.

Having made these introductory remarks, we beg now to leave the work, as to its details, in their classification and arrangement, in the hands of the Practitioner and Student, hoping to receive as on former occasions the same kind and generous support and encouragement which have been awarded to the former issues.

Writs of summons and capias issue alternately from each Court. Sittings same as Queen's Bench.

Practice Court and Chambers.

One of the Common Law Judges holds a Court during each term, called the "Practice Court," for hearing matters relating to awards, bail, &c., and determining matters on motion, and making rules and orders in causes, and business depending in either of the Law Courts. Chambers are held each day in Law by one of the Judges of the Courts, or, since last Act of Parliament, by Mr. R. G. Dalton, Clerk of the Crown and Pleas; and in Chancery by the Judge's Secretary, for such business relating to suits therein as may be transacted by a single Judge out of Court. Power has, by a recent statute, been given to the Common Law Judges to authorize the Clerk of the Crown and Pleas of the Court of Queen's Bench to hold Chambers in certain cases, which are held now daily.

Reporter in Practice Court and Common Law Chambers—
Henry O'Brien.

Reporter in Chancery Chambers—C. W. Cooper.

Clerk Common Law—William B. Heward.

Heir and Devisee Commission.

(Established under Provincial Statute, 8 Vic. cap. 8.)

COMMISSIONERS.

The Judges of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Chancery, and Common Pleas, and such other persons as may be appointed by commission under the Great Seal.

Their duties are to determine claims to lands in the Province of Ontario for which no patent has issued from the Crown in favor of the proper claimants, whether as heirs, devisees, or assignees. The Commissioners meet at Toronto the first Monday of January and July, continuing till Saturday of the week following.

Clerk—William B. Heward.

County Courts.

Presided over by a resident Judge in each County. Their jurisdiction extends to all personal actions where the debt or damages claimed do not exceed £50; and to all suits relating to debt, covenant, and contract, where the amount is liquidated or ascertained by the act of the parties or signature of the defendant to £100; but not to cases involving the title to lands (with the exception of actions of ejectment in specified cases), validity of wills, or actions for libel, crim. con., or seduction. An appeal lies to either of the Superior Courts of Law.

COUNTY COURT TERMS.

These terms are regulated by Statute 32 Vic. cap. 6, sec. 2. They are held twice a year for every County, except York, which holds three terms a year. They commence, in the County of York, on the first Monday of January and April, and the last Monday in August; and in all the other Counties on the first Monday in January and July, and they end on the Saturday of the same week. Sittings—Same as Court of General Sessions, being three times a-year for the County of York, viz., on second Tuesday in March, July, and December; and twice a-year for every other County, viz., on second Tuesday in June and December.

BOARD OF COUNTY JUDGES.

Chairman—J. R. Gowan, County Simcoe. Members—S. J. Jones, County Brant; D. J. Hughes, County Elgin; James Daniell, Counties Prescott and Russell; and James Smith, County Victoria.

Insolvency Courts.

The "Insolvent Act of 1869" regulates all proceedings respecting assignments for the benefit of creditors, the equitable adjustment, division, and winding up of the estates of insolvent debtors, the punishment of fraud and fraudulent preferences, &c. These Courts are established in each County, and are presided over by the County Judges. The official assignees are appointed by the Board of Trade within the County or adjacent thereto.

Surrogate Courts.

There is a Surrogate Court in each County, under the provisions of Con. Stat. U. C. cap. 16, which grants probate or administration, and has testamentary jurisdiction subject to an appeal to the Court of Chancery. The County Judges preside. There is a Registrar to each Court, besides the Surrogate Clerk (Sir James Lukin Robinson), who is an officer of the Court of Chancery. There are four terms, commencing the first Monday in January, April, July, and October, and ending Saturday of the same week.

Courts of General Sessions.

Chairman—The County Judge in each County, who, with one or more Justices of the Peace, holds a Court of General Session in his County twice a year (except in the County of York, where three Courts will be held in the year since 1st February, 1869), for trials by jury in cases of felony and misdemeanor, and for the decision of appeals from summary convictions of magistrates.

County Judges Criminal Courts.

SPEEDY TRIALS OUT OF SESSION.

By the Act of the Parliament of Canada, 82-83 Vic. cap. 35, any person committed to jail for trial on a charge of being guilty of any offence for which he may be tried at a Court of General Sessions, may, with his own consent, and subject to the provisions of the said Act in that behalf, be forthwith tried by the Judge of the County Court and General Sessions without a jury, and if convicted be sentenced by the said Judge, and the Judge sitting on any such trial for all the purposes thereof, is constituted a Court of Record, and the record in any such case shall be filed among the records of the Court of General Sessions last mentioned.

Division Courts

Are held in different places in each County by the County Judge for the summary disposal of cases: but a jury of five persons may be demanded in certain cases. Their jurisdiction embraces all actions of debt or contract amounting to £25, and injuries or torts to personal chattels and personal actions to the amount of £10, but not to actions for gambling debts, liquor drunk in a tavern, or notes of hand given therefor, ejectment, title to land, &c., or any toll, custom or franchise, will or settlement, malicious prosecution, libel, slander, crim. con., seduction or breach of promise, or actions against a J. P. for anything done by him in the execution of his office, if he objects to it. These Courts have also a limited jurisdiction in replevin, and have power to garnish debts. Each judicial district is divided into Court Divisions, and Courts are held once in two months in each Division, or oftener, in the discretion of the Judge. The Divisions are established by the Courts of General Sessions, and in certain cases by the Judge. Parties may be sued either in the Division where they reside, or where the debt was contracted. Attachments against personal property of debtors absconding from the Province leaving property liable to execution, or removing their goods from one County to another, or from the Province, with intent to defraud, or keeping concealed to avoid service of process with intent to defraud, may be issued by the Clerk of the Division, or by the Judge or any Justice of the Peace.

EXAMINERS.

John T. Anderson, Esq., Common Law.

Alexander Leith, Esq., Real Property.

Thomas Moss, Esq., M.A. Equity.

The Law Society of Upper Canada was established in 1797, by the Act 37 George III. cap. 13, which enabled the then Practitioners of the Law to form themselves into a Society, and make Rules for its government, under the inspection of the Judges, as Visitors. The Act of 1822 (2 George IV. cap. 5,) incorporated the "Treasurer and Benchers of the Law Society," giving a perpetual succession, and a common seal, in the usual manner of Acts of Incorporation.

Under the statutes, the Society is governed by the Board of Benchers in the same manner as the various Law Societies in London, England. The Benchers sit in convocation every Term, for the admission of Students and Barristers, and the examination of fitness and capacity of Attorneys, and for other general business. Each Student at Law, on admission, is a member of the Society, and entitled to the use of the Library. The Revenue of the Society consists of the fees paid by Students-at-law, and Barristers and Attorneys, on their admission; the fees of Attorneys and Solicitors for certificates; and the fees called Term Fees, charged to practising Barristers. The Library of the Society is of considerable value, and is of great service to the Students and Practitioners. The Treasurer is elected annually, in Michaelmas Term, and enters upon his duties on the first day of the following term.

No person shall be admitted and enrolled as an Attorney or Solicitor, unless (inter alia)

He has during the time specified in his contract of service duly served thereunder, and has during the whole of such term been actually employed in the proper practice or business of an Attorney or Solicitor by the Attorney or Solicitor to whom he has been bound, at the place where such Attorney or Solicitor has continued to reside during such term, or with his consent, by the Professional Agent of such Attorney or Solicitor in Toronto, for a part of the said term, not exceeding one year.

two terms, as hereinbefore provided, and (in case of a person who has been called to the Bar or taken a degree) a certificate of his having been so called to the Bar or taken such a degree, or a duly authenticated certified copy of such certificate. (See 29 Vic. ch. 29.)

In case the contract of service, assignment (if a vy) affidavits and certificate of due service, or any of them, cannot be produced, then, on application to be made to the Law Society, by a petition, verified by affidavit, to be left with the Secretary of the Society, at least fourteen days next before the first day of the term on which the applicant seeks admission, the Society, on being satisfied of such fact, may, in their discretion, dispense with the production of such contract, assignment, affidavits and certificate of due service, or any of them, and may, notwithstanding such non-production, grant the certificates, &c.

The Law Society may, upon being satisfied that the applicant for admission has really and bonâ fide served and been actually employed under articles, for the term of five years, or shorter term, as the case may be, in their discretion and in accordance with rules to be established by them, with the approbation of the Visitors, grant the Certificates of Fitness, although the terms or conditions required have not been strictly complied with.

Whenever any person has been bound by contract in writing to serve as a Clerk to an Attorney or Solicitor, such contract, with the affidavit of execution thereof annexed thereto, shall, within three months next after the execution of the contract, be filed with one of the Clerks of the Crown and Pleas at Toronto, who shall endorse and sign upon such contract and affidavit, a memorandum of the day of filing thereof; and every assignment of such contract, together with an affidavit of the execution thereof annexed thereto, shall be filed in like manner within the like period of three months next after the execution thereof.

In case such contract or assignment (as the case may be), with the affidavit of execution annexed thereto, be not filed within three months after the date of the contract or assignment, the same may nevertheless be filed with either of the officers before mentioned, but the service of the Clerk shall be reckoned only from the date of such filing, unless the Law Society in its discretion shall, for special reasons in any particular case, otherwise order."

If any Attorney or Solicitor, or any member of any firm of Attorneys or Solicitors, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his firm, practices in either of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Chancery, or Common Pleas, without such certificate being taken out by such Attorney and Solicitor, and by each member of his firm, he shall forfeit the sum of forty dollars, which forfeiture shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Law Society, for the uses thereof, and may be recovered in either of the said Courts of Common Law.

Table of Descent of Real Estate.

ACCORDING TO THE LAW OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO,

(Con. Stat. U. C. cap. 82.)

N.B.—This Table applies only to persons dying on or after 1st January, 1852. As to all persons who died before that day, the law of descent is the same as in England.

The Real Estate, in the Province of Ontario, of all persons dying on or after 1st January, 1852, descends as follows :

- 1st.—To lineal descendants and those claiming by or under them per stirpes.
- 2nd.—To the father.
- 3rd.—To the mother.
- 4th.—To collateral relatives.

Subject, however, to the following rules :

First.—If the intestate leave several descendants in the direct line of lineal descent, and all of equal degree of consanguinity to such intestate, the inheritance will descend to such persons in equal parts, however remote from the intestate the common degrees of consanguinity may be.

Second.—If any of the children of the intestate be living, and some be dead, the inheritance will descend to the children living, and to the descendants of those who are dead, so that each child who shall be living shall inherit such share as would have descended to him if all the children of the intestate who shall have died, leaving issue, had been living, and so that the descendants of such as are dead shall inherit the share which their deceased parent would have received if living.

Third.—The same rule applies where descendants of the intestate are of unequal degrees of consanguinity.

Fourth.—If the intestate die without lineal descendants, and leaving a father, the inheritance will go to the father, unless the inheritance came to the intestate on the part of the mother, and such mother be living. If the mother be dead, the inheritance descending on her part will go to the father for life, and reversion to the brothers and sisters of the intestate and the descendants of such as may be dead. If there be no brother or sister, or descendants of brother or sister, the inheritance will go to the father,

Fifth.—If the intestate die without any lineal descendants and leaving no father, or leaving a father not entitled under the last rule, and leaving a mother and brothers and sisters, or descendants of brother or sister, the inheritance will go to the mother for life, and revert to the brothers and sisters and their descendants. If the intestate leave no brother or sister, or descendant of a brother or sister, the inheritance will go to the mother.

Sixth.—If no father or mother capable of inheriting under the preceding rules, then the inheritance will fall to the collateral relatives in equal degree in equal parts.

Seventh.—If intestate leave only brother or sister, or descendant of brother or sister, the inheritance will go to those living, and to the descendants of those who are dead equally.

Eighth.—If the intestate leave no heir entitled under the foregoing rules, then if the inheritance came on the part of the father, it will go to brothers and sisters of the father, and the descendants of such as may be dead.

Ninth.—If no brother or sister of father, and no descendant of brother or sister of father, the inheritance will go to the brother or sister, or descendant of brother or sister, of mother.

Tenth.—Where inheritance came on part of mother, then the same shall descend to the brothers and sisters and descendants of brothers and sisters, of the mother.

Eleventh.—Where the inheritance came neither on part of mother nor father, the brothers and sisters, and their descendants, of father and mother shall inherit equally.

Twelfth.—The half-blood shall inherit equally with whole-blood, unless the inheritance came by descent or devise or gift

ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE CANADA LAW JOURNAL, AND THE LOCAL COURTS GAZETTE,

ARE published monthly in the City of Toronto, at the following rates:—
The LAW JOURNAL at $3 per annum, if paid before the 1st of March in each year; otherwise $4.

The LOCAL COURTS GAZETTE at $2 per annum, if paid before the 1st of March in each year; otherwise $3.

Both publications at $4 per annum, if paid before the 1st of March in each year; otherwise $5.

The changes effected by the Confederation Act have rendered advisable and proper a change in the name of the UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL to that which heads this page. Under the new Dominion it is reasonable that there should be a legal periodical, which will eventually become, as it has hitherto been in Ontario, the organ of the profession in all the Provinces, and especially in those owning the common law in England as the basis of their jurisprudence. The simple fact that this (now in the sixteenth year of its existence) is the only legal periodical in the Dominion, is sufficient, without more, to entitle it to the distinctive name which it has assumed.

They are recognized organs of intercommunication between lawyers, Officers of Courts, and others concerned in the administration of justice, and are mediums of advertising on subjects of legal interest.

Vols I. to X. inclusive of the UPPER CANADA LAW JOURNAL (Old Series), on hand; $30 the ten volumes, or $4 for either separately.

Vols. I., II., III., IV. and V., of the New Series, $15.

The Advertising Charges are:

Card for one year, not exceeding 4 lines	- - -	$4 00
One column (80 lines), per issue	- - -	4 00
Half a Column (40 lines), per issue	- - -	2 50
Quarter Column (20 lines), per issue	- - -	1 50
Eighth of a Column (10 lines), per issue	- - -	1 00

Business Cards not exceeding four lines—and subscription for one year, if paid in advance—for the LAW JOURNAL, $5 only; for the LOCAL COURTS GAZETTE, $4 only.

All advertisements will appear in both periodicals.
